

GOVERNMENT HOUSE
FOUNDATION
Western Australia

Membership

The Government House Foundation of Western Australia was established in 1987, primarily to promote an awareness of the significance of Government House, the Ballroom and the gardens as part of the history and heritage of Western Australia.

Members of the Foundation are interested people drawn from all walks of life and are the Friends of Government House. Members receive a newsletter advising on the activities of the Foundation as well as invitations to Government House Foundation events throughout the year.
